Lesson 1: Adam and Eve Role Play

“A Conversation Between Adam and Eve”

Adam: (Gardening) Eve, working in the garden sure got hard after we upset God by eating that fruit!

Eve: Yes, and our boys aren't getting along well anymore either. They argue and hit each other all the time. I hope it doesn't get any worse! And these stupid fig leaves I have to wear. They're so ugly!

Adam: (Arguing) Well, we can't afford to buy new clothes, so don't complain! (Pause) I miss the old days, when God used to walk with us and talk with us. Now He's sorry we're even around. And remember how the animals used to obey us? Now they run scared of us!

Eve: Yes, or they try to bite us! Ugh... I hate snakes! I can't believe I took advice from a snake! This whole mess is all the snake's fault!

Adam: No, it's all your fault! You never do the right thing! Why would I take advice from a person who took advice from a snake?

Eve: Well, don't blame me. That's your fault! (Stopping, sadly) I'm sorry. It doesn't help to yell. Adam, do you think things will ever be like they used to be?

Adam: I don't know. Only God could fix this mess!

Eve: Oh, no—what now? (Yelling, running out) Stop fighting you two boys! Stop it right now. Do you hear me? I'm going to tell your father, and he's not going to be happy!

Adam: (Returning to garden, sighing) Work, work, work, work, work, work...

Lesson 3: The Evangelist Role Play

Narrator's Introduction: Christians sometimes have what we call a "narrow view of the Gospel." They understand that accepting Jesus is a life-and-death decision, but they don't understand something else. When they are blind to their neighbor's needs, their message is actually lost. Today, we'll visit a very poor home. The only resident, a poor sick person (PSP) is ill and in bed. A visitor, a Christian evangelist (EV) on a door-to-door ministry campaign, has just arrived.

EV: Hello, hello! Anyone home? May I come in? (Enters)

PSP: (Weakly) In here...

EV: Hi. I'm _____ from _____ Church. I just came today to invite everyone to our church. The Lord has been blessing us with a powerful revival. You won't want to miss it.

PSP: (Groans, speaks haltingly) Can't come...can't get out of bed... too sick to move... lost my job... no money for medicine... or food... or rent...

EV: Those are big problems, but I know someone who has the answer to all of life's problems. Have you accepted Jesus Christ as your personal Savior?

PSP: (Weakly) My family and friends left me when I got sick and lost my job... Could anyone from your church help me? Please?

EV: The best help you could get is found right here in this little tract. It explains God's plan for your life. You know, it isn't His will that you're laying here! Take this, read it, pray the sinner's prayer, and believe!

PSP: (Weaker) Can't... too weak... (Stops talking, lies motionless.)

EV: (Checks pulse) Still alive! Praise God, I got here in time to witness! I'll leave the tract. I'd better get going so I can minister to other lost souls. (Talks loudly in PSP's ear) We'll pray for you. Remember, Jesus is the answer (Leaves)

PSP: (Watches him leave, groans) Ohhhhhhhhhhh.....
(Do nothing else – or whatever seems appropriate)
